

TimeTalks - FAQs

1. To book a place on an event you must contact the event organiser. The prices we display for events are as accurate as possible but please note that there can be variations. For instance, some organisations charge less for members than non-members. Some events you can pay for on the day, when you turn up, and no booking is required. For other events you need to book in advance. Generally speaking booking in advance is required for all courses, conferences and dayschools. Some walks or talks are free – but again – check in advance with the organising body!
2. What happens if an event is cancelled? If an event is cancelled then we will amend our website as soon as we possibly can, and post a message on our TimeTalks email list. This is a good reason for you to subscribe to the email list! Please note that we depend on the organising bodies to let us know of changes to their programme in advance.
3. What happens if I go to an event and it is more to go in than on your advertised pages, or has been cancelled? We always advise people to check directly with the walk or talk organisers. TimeTalks is not responsible for any errors or omissions on its site.
4. What happens if we want to get our events listed under TimeTalks? Just email us at info@timetalks.co.uk and we will arrange.
5. You can find out the abbreviations we use for organising bodies (useful when you want to search for events by a particular organiser) by clicking on our Book Your Place tab.
